

The Tom Whitney Memorial Scholarship

(A $1,000 scholarships to MDHS)

Tom Whitney, Monsignor Donovan High School class of 1999, was tragically killed in May of '06. As an outstanding graduate and representative of the values set forth by this school, Tom will be greatly missed by all who knew him.

In his honor, Tom's family has established this scholarship to recognize a student coming to Monsignor Donovan High School from the public school system, similar to the path followed by Tom. The recipient should also exhibit strong character and good academic achievement.
